Monday, February 2d, 1747. [Numb. 668]

Extract of a Letter, published in the Boston Evening Post No. 590.

" — BUT here I think it proper to make this useful and necessary Remark, That we ought to be cautious " for the future, how we encourage and improve Strangers in " the Work of the Ministry among us: For it is certain that by " so doing, in Times past, we sometimes have entertained Cheats " and Impostors unawares. Dr Cotton Mather, in his History, has " given us a black List of such Vagrants and Varlets, as he calls " them, who infested these Churches in the Days of our Fa- " thers, and drew away Disciples after them. And in the late " Times of Religious Confusion, several Seducers of the same Com- " plexion have strolled thro' the Land, and been encourag'd " and improv'd by some of our Ministers, who are zealously " carrying on Mr. W——d's Work. Of this sort of noxious " Creatures I take the famous Mr. D—ll—n to be one: He has " for several Years past been peddling thro' the Country a vast " Number of Books and Pamphlets, full of pernicious Principles, " tending to beguile unstable Souls, and has gull'd the People of " vast Sums of Money. It has been said, that he was recom- " mended in England by Mr W——d, to his Followers here; " and accordingly, some of the furious Zealots of Mr. W——d's " Faction have set up D——n to preach in their Pulpits, tho' " he was thought by many to be of a very suspicious Character. " He appears partly in the Garb of a Clergyman of the Church of " England, but professes to be a Baptist Teacher. He has late- " ly enter'd into Houses, and led Captive Negroes, and silly Wo- " men, and from Day to Day, in a disorderly Manner, has been " dipping as many as he could seduce; and all this in the Face of " the Sun, and under the Eye of Civil Authority! I think Di- " vine Institutions have been shamefully prostituted, and holy " Things cast to Dogs; and that the perilous Times are come, fore- " told by St Paul, 1 Tim iv 1, 2 when some shall depart from " the Faith, giving heed to seducing Spirits, and Doctrines of Devils; " speaking Lies in Hypocrisy, having their Consciences seared with an " hot Iron. ——— ——— ——— "

Mr Timothy, Charlestown, 30th Jan 1746-7.

Please to insert the above in your next, and oblige

Yours, &c. W. A.

A few Days ago the Rev Mr. Dutton arrived here from Boston, and has since embark'd for Bristol, on board the Prince Charles, Capt. Giles.

Paris, October 13. It's assur'd that the King has bought the Palace of Bourbon to make a Present of it to Marshal Saxe. The Duke de Penthievre is going to command in Britany, accompanied by eighty Noblemen. They write from Flanders, that all the Prisoners are released upon their Parole of Honour, except the Dutch, and ten Millions of Contributions will be demanded at Brussels, to make good those raised upon the Genoese.

The King has order'd a Present of 800,000 Livres to be made to the Pretender's eldest Son, to reimburse him for the Loss of his Equipage, together with an annual Pension of 600,000 Livres, and an Apartment in the Palace of St Germains en Laye. He has been receiv'd at Court as Prince of Wales, the King himself having saluted him with the Title of Royal Highness. Both he and his Brother lodge at Present in the Palace of Fontainbleau. Two Englishmen, who came over with the young Pretender, are committed Prisoners to the Castle of Saux for a Design to assassinate him; and a Lord, who intended to have delivered him, dead or alive, to the Court of London, having been detected, is arrested for it at St. Malo's. The Earl of Marton, who has been some Time in this Kingdom, and was very intimate with M. Van Hoey, was arrested on Monday last, and his Countess and two Children, with several other English Gentlemen and Ladies, have since met with the same Misfortune, and have been all sent to the Bastile, from whence the Earl was brought Yesterday to see his Papers and Effects sealed up; after which he was remanded back, notwithstanding his Dutch Excellency's Intercession.

Frankfort, October 19. We have not much News from Berlin; his Prussian Majesty applies as steadily to Business, as his Officers to recruiting; he is absolutely determin'd to be in a Condition to defend what he acquir'd by the Treaty of Dresden, and to be in a proper State to support his Applications to the Dyets of Warsaw, Stockholm and Ratisbon, before all of which he proposes to lay several Matters of great Importance. The Elector Palatine has forbid all his Subjects to sell or transport any Kind of Provisions or Forage out of his Dominions; the Reason of which we were for some Time at a Loss to find, but from various Circumstances it now seems probable, that he expects a considerable Body of Foreign Troops to take Quarters in his Dominions, which renders that Precaution requisite.

Hague, Oct 23. The States General have regulated the Winter Quarters for the Troops of the Allied Army, which are to form a Line on each Side of the Meuse. It's assured that the Hessians will be quarter'd in Guilderland, the Hanoverians at Grave and in the County of Cuyk, and the English in the Bareny of Breda. It's also said, that there will be eight Austrian Battalions in Maestricht, and that the rest of their Troops will be quarter'd at Luxemburgh, Ruremonde, and the Dutchy of Limburg.

Amsterdam, Oct 27. We have received Letters from Turky, which say that the Peace between the Ottoman Porte and the Schah Nadir was sign'd upon the Frontiers of Persia the 24th of August last.

Cologne, Oct 31. We are assur'd that 17 Battalions and 61 Squadrons of French Troops, coming from Flanders, are marching towards the Rhine and the Moselle, in order to seize upon the City of Treves, and thereby deprive the Garrison of Luxemburg of their Communication with Germany. But some other Advices say, that this is only a feigned Pretext; that the real Design of the French is to push on towards Hanover this Winter, and there make a Diversion which will gall the British Court more than any other Expedition the Court of Versailles can contrive.

Paris, Oct 31. M. Van Hoey did all that lay in his Power to save the Earl of Morton from going to the Bastile: But the Marquis d'Argenson declared to his Excellency, that the King's Orders were peremptory in this Affair; that his Majesty highly resented the Manner in which they continued to treat in England the Officers, English or Scotch, engag'd in his Service, and Prisoners in that Kingdom; and that their future Behaviour towards them, should decide the Treatment he would order to the English Prisoners in France. The Number of the British Subjects actually in the Bastile, amounts to thirty two.

It's said the King has left Lord Morton, and all the English who are or shall be taken up, to the Judgment of the Pretender's eldest Son, and that the former will be imprison'd for Life, for saying, that he had fifteen Millions to distribute among the disaffected People of the Kingdom.

Paris, Nov 4. The Dauphin's Marriage with the Princess Maria Josepha, third Daughter of the King of Poland, Elector of Saxony, is concluded, and will be declared at Court before the 20th of this Month. They talk at Court of a Match between Prince Edward Stuart, and a Princess of Modena.

It is likewise given out, that an Alphabet, or Key, to a very intricate Cypher has been found among the Earl of Morton's Papers; by which we pretend to have discover'd the Hand he had in in the Deſcent of the Engliſh upon Britiany, and another which they were to have made on the Coaſt of Poitou and Aunis, where they had, as 'tis ſaid, conceal'd Arms for 4000 Men of the Priſoners of War that lie in Anglers and Places adjacent; to which Places the ſaid Priſoners were to have let Fire, and then join'd the Engliſh Troops.

Paris, Oct 21. We have certain Advice, that a Treaty of Alliance, Offenſive and Defenſive, between this Court and that of Spain, has been renew'd, and the Ratifications exchang'd. It is alſo whiſper'd, that a particular Convention for the Regulation of the Military Operations in the next Campaign was ſign'd by the Duke d'Huoſcar on the 26th of laſt Month at Verſailles, by which it is ſtipulated, that the Spaniards ſhall have 28,000 Foot, and 12,000 Horſe, by the firſt of April, and that they ſhall be join'd by 38,000 French Foot, and 13,000 Horſe, in order to renew the War in Italy; but this laſt Piece of News does not meet with any great Credit. It is alſo given out at Verſailles that M. de Puyſieux will ſhortly repair to the Hague from Breda, in order to execute a Commiſſion of great Importance from his Majeſty to the States General, with a View to accelerate the Negociations for Peace. It is very evident from what paſs'd in the late Action at Liege, that our Court is reſolv'd to weaken the Dutch as much as poſſible.

CHARLES-TOWN, February 2.

On Tueſday laſt the Rev. Mr Whitefield returned from the Country, and that Afternoon preach'd here, as he did every Day 'till Yeſterday, when he preach'd twice. This Day he preaches at Aſhley Ferry, To morrow at Dorcheſter, and then proceeds to Georgia, from whence he will return again in three Weeks or a Month.
